

The secret gnostic order of knowledge was founded

⁶ The secret gnostic order of knowledge was founded by order of the planetary hierarchy and on the initiative of the head of its department of education, Christos– Maitreya, in preparation for his work, the proclamation of the unity and divinity of all life. The order was to be a centre for his teaching and to enable him to gather and teach initiates belonging to the Aryan race.

⁷ The object was to institute an order that would absorb the members of all the orders....
