

The distress of mankind in all respects is enormous.

7 Neither philosophy nor science will ever be able to provide a rational working hypothesis to explain reality and life.

8 Those who want to pass to the fifth natural kingdom should learn about the conditions for this: being in contact with your Augoeides, assimilating the planetary hierarchy's view on human evolution, acquiring the necessary qualities and abilities.

9 If you are content to live in the worlds of man; if you enjoy or think you will learn something from the products of culture, if you do not want to do everything to reach the causal and essential stages, then you do not need any one-pointedness of purpose.

10 In this connection karma yoga is mentioned as the only truly practical yoga.

11 The distress of mankind in all respects is enormous. The greatest obstacles to evolution are the ruling untrue ideologies, which mislead, brutalize, and satanize mankind, engender the repulsive tendency (hatred), strengthen egoism and mania for possessions that deprive others of the necessities of life.
