

they will prove that Christos is not Christos

¹⁷The theologians will of course counteract the plans of the planetary hierarchy and do their best to hinder mankind from calling it back. They have their paper pope, the “pure, unadulterated word of god” (which nobody has been able to interpret right), by means of which they will prove that Christos is not Christos.

¹⁸The fathers of the Church have a great responsibility, having acted as disciples of a master whom they never knew and to whom they have testified falsely.

¹⁹Also the philosophers have their paper popes, Kant or Russell or some other fictionalist. Those who have accepted some fiction system are subsequently immune to all rational arguments. That is the manifest risk with studies in the history of ideologies.

²⁰To the scientists there is no “higher world”, so hylozoics is to them an imaginative construction...
